MEDICINAL

LIGHT AND DARK,

Day and night, sunshine and shadow are not more different from each other than a healthy woman from a sickly woman. The healthy woman carries light and sunshine with her wherever she goes. The woman who suffers from ill-health casts a shadow on her own happiness and the happiness of others. She cannot help it. Those who suffer cannot smile and sing. Ill-health in woman is generally traceable to disease of the delicate womanly organism. Many women have been restored to happiness by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"I feel it my duty to inform you that I had been a sufferer for many years from nervousness with all its symptoms and complications," writes Mrs. O. M. Fisher of 1864 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. "I was constantly going to see a physician or purchasing medicine for this or that complaint as my troubles became unbearable. In the spring of 1897 my husband induced me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After taking one bottle and following your advice I was so encouraged that I took five more bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and then I did not take any more for several weeks as I felt so much better, but still I was not completely cured. I commenced taking it again and felt that I was improving faster than at first. I am not now cross and irritable, and I have a good color in my face; have also gained about ten pounds in weight and one thousand of comfort for I am a new woman once more."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss, therefore accept no substitute. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

RACE TROUBLES IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

One man was hanged and three were severely whipped in the little town of Norway, Orangeburg county, S. C., Tuesday night, while the village was guarded and patrolled by men from neighboring towns, who went to the aid of the Norway people on hearing that an attack on the town by negroes was anticipated last night the village was heavily guarded but there seem to be little cause for apprehension.

On Monday evening, James T. Phillips, a Confederate soldier, and the father of nineteen children, was sitting with his family at supper, when there was a flash and a roar at the window, and the white head of Phillips fell forward on the table, blood spouting from eight slugs wounds in the back of his head, some of which pierced the brain. One bullet struck the baby of the family, a girl of nine years, and another the young son, a boy of eleven, but neither of the wounds was serious. While the elder children rallied for twenty minutes the head of his dying father. At daylight villagers began the chase. They heard that Charley and Henry Evans, mulatto brothers, had been seen in hiding with guns near the town the evening before. Starting where the men were recognized, they were tracked to the window through which Phillips was shot, then back to a pond, where Charley Evans was captured, his brother escaping.

It is twenty miles through the country to the county seat and there seems to have been no disposition in Norway to part with the p. soner. He was locked in the wooden "calaboose." In the evening a messenger went into the village saying that Henry Evans was "down by the branch" and said to "come and get him." Twenty of the villagers went down to the place indicated, surrounding it. Evans was not there, but twelve armed negroes were there, however, being outnumbered and lacking a leader, did not fire, but made their escape. They were all seized and disarmed. John Felder, H. S. Johnson, and Pink Hartwell, the most dangerous, being locked up.

In the meantime word spread through the county that negroes would attack Norway that night. Rifles were forwarded from Columbia and men to shoot them rushed in from neighboring villages. About midnight a crowd took out the three men who had been arrested in the afternoon and whipped them separately. Each of the negroes implicated the Evans brothers. After they had been severely flogged, these men were released. It is said one will die.

Shortly before daylight Charley Evans was carried 200 yards over the town line and hanged. Evans declared his innocence, saying if they would give him until next morning he would prove his brother committed the crime. The body was still hanging last night. The only negroes in sight in that vicinity are gathered about the tree from which the corpse was hanged.

All day men have gone about with guns on their shoulders and Norway was again guarded last night. Governor Heyward was very much disturbed. He wired the sheriff of Orangeburg, "Exhaust every means to apprehend lawless and suggest any aid this department can give." A message along the same line was sent the coroner.

Henry Evans surrendered to the sheriff last night. The father of these young men is a white man, having prominent connections.

A PATHETIC STORY.

A pathetic story was revealed in the death of a young mother by illuminating gas at the boarding house of Mrs. Mary Barrett, in New York, yesterday morning. During the heavy rainstorm Thursday evening Mrs. Barrett heard a timid ring of the doorbell. Going to the door a well-dressed young woman, of evident refinement, carrying in her arms an infant, asked for lodging. Mrs. Barrett told her that she did not take women boarders, at which the young woman burst into tears and said she had been to half a dozen places and was tired out and could go no farther. She said the baby was two weeks old and she had just left the Sloane Maternity Hospital following the child's birth. She pleaded with Mrs. Barrett to let her stay over night. Mrs. Barrett was touched, and took her in. She was given Mrs. Barrett's own room on the top floor, and retired about 10 o'clock, seemingly in good spirits. All that she would say about herself was that she had named the baby Walter, after her husband. Yesterday morning the odor of gas came from the room. The door was forced and the young woman was found on the bed, dead. The baby had tumbled off the bed, but in doing so the sheets had been pulled with him, and as he had rolled under the bed had formed a sort of canopy over him, protecting him from the gas. He was crying lustily. The police searched the woman's effects and found four letters addressed to her at the hospital. They were written in loving terms and signed

Mrs. Fred Vnrath,

No. 228 Territorial Street, Benton Harbor, Mich.

"I am pleased to give my experience with Wine of Cardui as I am very grateful for its help. After my first baby was born I could not seem to regain my strength, although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband came home one evening with some Wine of Cardui and insisted that I take it for a week and see what it would do for me. As he seemed to have so much faith in it I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

MOTHERHOOD is the noblest duty and highest privilege women can achieve or aspire to. Without this privilege women can never get all there is in life—too often they go through the world discontented and unhappy. How different is the happy mother, watching her children grow into manhood and womanhood. A mother lives as many lives as she has children—their joys and sorrows are hers, as are their ambitions, triumphs and defeats. Healthy women do not suffer miscarriage nor does a woman who is healthy suffer tortures at childbirth. It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in a woman. It stops all unnatural drains and strains—irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.

Wine of Cardui, in re-inforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any case of barrenness except cases of organic trouble. How can you refuse to take such a remedy that promises such relief from suffering? Wine of Cardui simply makes you a strong woman, and strong, healthy women do not suffer. They look forward to motherhood with joy.

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

I., a year ago, as that of Mrs. Nannie Smith. Mr. Howard believes she was married. He says she is a daughter of a Mrs. Royal, of Disputanta. On an empty envelope in the room was this address: "F. J. Davis, Disputanta, Va., Prince George county."
